JETTE SCHEIB ■ a étudié le design industriel à l'Université des Arts (UdK) de Berlin.

Après l'obtention de son diplôme en 2005, elle a fondé son propre studio et a depuis conçu des produits pour des entreprises internationales, spécialisée dans les accessoires pour la maison, les cadeaux et l'éclairage. De 2009 à 2011, Jette a travaillé comme professeur de design à l'Université des Arts (UdK).

« Je suis inspiré par les formes de la nature et organique, mais aussi par les gens et la vie de tous les jours. J'observe mon entourage, j'étudie les objets, les gens, les gens qui interagissent avec les objets et les autres. Je collecte des informations esthétique et technique, puis elles se mettent en place. Je suis animée par la curiosité, l'intuition et le désir de créer quelque chose qui a de la valeur, de la personnalité, qui vous fait vous sentir bien et qui ajoute un nouveau contexte ou une nouvelle dimension à un objet fonctionnel. »

Jette travaille et vit à Barcelone, en Espagne.

ÉLISE FOUIN ■ Diplômée de l'École Boulle, «Talent à la carte» du salon Maison & Objet en 2010, elle balance entre art et design. Elle privilégie la matière à l'objet, la récupère, la détourne pour mieux la réinventer. Qu'il s'agisse d'espaces, de produits ou de mobilier, son travail s'inscrit dans une démarche poétique et de développement durable, qui valorise la matière «dernière» pour qu'elle devienne matière «première». Reconnue pour son travail sur le papier et la lumière, elle a exposé à la ToolsGallery et à la Granville Gallery et développe maintenant des projets pour des marques de luxe.

ÉLISE FOUIN ■ As a graduate of the Ecole Boulle, named «Talent à la carte» at the Maison & Objet show in 2010, she skilfully combines both art and design. She has marked preference for the materials over the items themselves, reclaiming them and reusing them with the aim of constantly being able to reinvent them more effectively. Whether we are talking about space, products of furniture, her work is underpinned by a poetic spirit and a commitment to sustainable development, reusing recycled and recovered materials as her raw material. Recognised for her work with paper and with lighting, she has exhibited at the ToolsGallery and at the Granville Gallery, and is now producing projects for luxury brands.

JETTE SCHEIB POUR FORESTIER

Pour cette nouvelle collection, Jette Scheib s'est inspirée de l'idée «d'une lampe suspendue qui recueille, porte et garde la lumière tel un flacon de parfum conservant précieusement sa fragrance».

Aussi magique que fonctionnelle, cette collection se décline en suspension ou applique et dans une palette de couleurs douces : gris, curry, olive, sable, nude ou aqua.

Une collection raffinée qui rappelle la lumière intime des lanternes chinoises.

For this new collection, Jette Scheib was inspired by the idea of «a hanging lamp that collects, carries and keeps the light like a perfume bottle that preciously preserves its fragrance».

As magical as it is functional, this collection is available as a pendant or wall lamp and in a palette of soft colors: gray, curry, olive, sand, nude or aqua.

A refined collection that recalls the intimate light of Chinese lanterns.

ARIK LEVY POUR FORESTIER

Bamboo est une collection poétique entre nature et design.
Un parti pris de matériaux naturels et authentiques sublimés par le travail des artisans.
Une déclinaison de luminaires pour une lumière douce s'adaptant aussi bien à l'intérieur qu'à l'extérieur.

*Bamboo, a poetic collection between nature and design
A bias of natural and authentic materials enhanced by the work of craftsmen.
A declination of light fittings for a soft light suitable for both indoor and outdoor.*

ELISE FOUIN POUR FORESTIER

La suspension «Satélise» est réalisée en fils de rotin twistés pour obtenir l'effet graphique d'une rosace rappelant le mouvement périodique de la trajectoire d'un objet en orbite autour d'un astre.

Existe en 3 dimensions environ : 55 cm, 75 cm, 100 cm, naturel, blanc et bleu marine.

The « Satélise » pendant light is realized with twisted thread of rattan to obtain the graphic effect of a rosette, reminding the periodic movement of the trajectory of an object in orbit around a celestial body.

ELISE FOUIN POUR FORESTIER

Suspension Papillon

«C'est en visitant la fabrique d'abat jour de la marque que l'inspiration pour la suspension Papillon est née. Toute la légèreté de ce luminaire est obtenue par la superposition de 3 carcasses. Les fils de métal de chacune d'elles sont multipliés puis vrillés pour obtenir cet effet graphique et cinétique rappelant celui du battement d'aile d'un papillon.»

Existe en Noir - Bleu Gris - Bleu/Vert/Blanc - Blanc - Cuivre rosé Taupe métallique - Or

«While visiting the factory of lampshade of the brand the inspiration for the suspension Butterfly was born. All the lightness of this lamp is obtained by the overlapping of 3 carcasses. The metal threads of each frame are duplicated, then twist to obtain this graphic and kinetic effect reminding the flapping of butterfly wings»

ARIK LEVY POUR FORESTIER

Au travers des collections Bodyless et Antenna, je renoue avec l'ADN de Forestier. Avec le fil de fer comme point d'ancre de la marque, j'ai dessiné des luminaires aux formes aériennes, structurées et épurées.

Thanks to the Bodyless and Antenna collections, I revive with Forestier's identity: with metal wire as anchorage point of the brand, I drew lightings fixtures with structured and pure design.

GENERAL TERMS OF SALES

ARTICLE 1

These general conditions of sale constitute the general regime governing FORESTIER's sales. They cancel and replace those that may have been distributed earlier by this Company. No special condition and/or exception can, except where the vendor agrees to it formally and in writing, take precedence over these general terms and conditions. The fact that the vendor does not take advantage of one of these general conditions of sale at any given moment, should not be interpreted as implying that it has renounced taking advantage of one of these conditions at a later date.

ARTICLE 2

Any order taken only becomes definitive to the extent that it is not rejected by FORESTIER within a period of 10 days as from receipt of the order by the vendor. As a result of this, FORESTIER reserves the right not to act on commitments made by its representatives or employees. By express agreement of the parties, failure on the part of the vendor to enter into a contract cannot lead to damages of any sort being payable to the purchaser. The benefit of the order is personal to the purchaser and may not be transferred without the vendor's agreement.

ARTICLE 3

The vendor reserves the right at its own initiative alone, to make minor modifications, in particular concerning the shape, color, dimensions or materials used in the collections it has presented, whatever the advertising channel used, that do not compromise the appearance of the product.

As far as specific orders are concerned - by this is meant orders for goods that are not part of the collection offered by the vendor - the terms of the offer made by FORESTIER relate exclusively to the terms of the quotation prepared by the latter. In case of necessity, the vendor retains the option of substituting goods that it deems to be of equivalent quality. This offer will be valid for the period specified within the offer as determined by the vendor.

ARTICLE 4

In the light of market fluctuations:

- Prices are only valid for the period indicated in this document. The firm and final price is the price in force on acceptance of the order by the vendor.
- Goods sold (both as far as initial orders and resupplying are concerned) will only be supplied within the limits of available stock - the purchaser, recognizing and accepting the principle, and as a consequence agreeing not to initiate any proceedings against the vendor in this context.
- Under no circumstances may the purchaser rely on standards, specifications, requirements, regulations and normal practice not specifically accepted by the vendor.

In the case of transactions involving large quantities not normally kept in stock, the delivery deadline must be agreed by the parties and as a minimum will be four months as from the date of receipt of the order.

ARTICLE 5

All prices issued by FORESTIER are net prices. Any discount linked to a quantity or a promotion, etc. must be the subject of a prior written agreement between the vendor and the purchaser.

ARTICLE 6

The methods of parceling, packaging and grouping are those in force within the FORESTIER Company.
The transport is settled by the INCOTERMS 2010 (International Commercial Terms of 2010).

Whatever the method of delivery selected and the place of delivery chosen, the purchaser bears full responsibility for all risks to which the goods may be subject from their release by the vendor. Release is considered as being from the time when the goods stored in the vendor's premises are handed over to the transport company for the purpose of delivery or handed over to the purchaser in case of delivery ex-works, or on presentation of the goods by the transport company in case of delivery carriage paid. In case of damage and/or loss, it is the purchaser's responsibility to express its concerns within 2 days of receipt of the goods and to inform the transport company used by FORESTIER of the dispute by registered letter with a form for acknowledgement of receipt when transport is provided by the vendor. Only compliance with this procedure will enable FORESTIER to issue a credit for the damaged goods or replace them. Products damaged during transport are not products missing from the delivery, but products delivered and invoiced which, when the declaration procedure is completed with, are subject to reimbursement or replacement at FORESTIER's discretion. The Purchaser may not rely on damage during transport to hold the Vendor responsible for not complying with its commitments.

CONDITIONS GENERALES DE VENTE

écrite entre les parties conformément à l'article L 4417 du Code de Commerce, prévaloir contre les présentes conditions générales de vente. Le fait que le vendeur ne se prépare pas à un instant donné de l'une quelconque des présentes conditions générales de ventes ne peut être interprété comme valant renonciation à se prévaloir ultérieurement de l'une quelconque des dites conditions.

terest according to the procedures defined in this paragraph. Invoices are considered as having been paid when the amount shown on them is credited to FORESTIER's bank account.

All deductions and/or set-off are specifically excluded except where specifically agreed in advance with FORESTIER. In case of improper deduction or set-off made by the purchaser, a penalty will be calculated on the improperly deducted amounts according to the calculation method of the late payment penalties as stated in this article.

In addition, force majeure or circumstances outside its control releases FORESTIER from all delivery commitments. All causes not-attributable to the vendor impeding or halting manufacturing and/or delivery or its suppliers' manufacturing and/or delivery are considered as cases of force majeure or circumstances outside FORESTIER's control.

ARTICLE 7

Without prejudice to the procedure to be followed in relation to the transport company, complaints concerning obvious faults or concerning the non-conformity of the product delivered must be expressed in writing and sent to the vendor within 2 days as from delivery of the goods. It is the purchaser's responsibility to supply evidence as to the reality of the defects or faults observed. The purchaser must give the vendor every opportunity to ascertain the nature of these faults. The purchaser must in addition, except where previously specifically agreed by the vendor in advance, refrain from carrying out any work on the goods that are subject to dispute either itself or via a third-party.

No goods can be returned without the written agreement of the vendor and acceptance of such goods does not imply recognition of liability by the latter. All products returned without such agreement will remain available to the purchaser and will not give rise to the creation of a credit. The expenses and risks inherent to the return of goods are always the purchaser's responsibility.

In any case, FORESTIER's liability, to the extent that it is incurred, is strictly limited to the obligation to replace or reimburse the defective and/or non-compliant goods as stated in this article.

ARTICLE 8

Packaging is not taken back by the vendor, its cost being, except where there are special conditions to the contrary, an integral part of the price quoted to the purchaser. These prices cannot however cover special packing procedures requested by the purchaser and accepted by the vendor.

In the absence of any special indications, the packaging is prepared by the vendor - packaging carried out by FORESTIER being fully approved by the purchaser, the latter as a result undertakes to release FORESTIER from any proceedings directed against it on this basis.

ARTICLE 9

FORESTIER offers quality decorative products for sale linked to decorating trends. These products are supplied to the extent that they are available in stock, the Company anticipating the launch of procurement and manufacturing in relation to market potential.

The Company accepts no penalties linked to a concept of service rate, that are not part of a prior agreement with the purchaser, an agreement that should in particular specify a list of the products concerned and consumption forecasts issued by the purchaser and the calculation of which complies with the method of calculation defined in the Code of Good Conduct for Commercial Practice between Professionals in the Decorating Trade Appendix IV signed on 22 April 2005 by F.M.B. and UNIBAL.

As long as the goods have not been paid for in full, the purchaser must keep the goods supplied in respect of this contract separate and must not mix them with other goods of the same type originating from other suppliers. Should the purchaser fail to keep the goods separate, the vendor may require reimbursement or take back those still in stock.

In case of seizure, or any other intervention by a third-party in relation to the goods, the purchaser is duty bound to inform the vendor without delay, allowing the vendor to oppose the seizure and preserve its rights.

The purchaser must in addition refrain from pledging or transferring ownership of the goods as a guarantee.

The purchaser is authorized, in the context of the normal operation of its establishment, to resell the goods that are the subject of this contract. However prior to selling them, it is obliged, at the vendor's discretion, to pay the balance of the price still owing to the vendor immediately or to inform the sub-purchasers that the goods in question are subject to a clause of reservation of title and to advise the vendor of this transfer so that it can preserve its rights, and if need be, make a claim on the resale price with regard to the sub-purchaser.

ARTICLE 10

All invoices are payable at our head office, Bégles. All orders are payable on proforma invoice. A deposit of 30% of the total amount of the order is requested to confirm the order. The payment is settled by bank transfer.

Where payment is made within 10 days of the date the invoice is issued, a discount of 1% will be granted calculated on the net amount ex VAT shown on the invoice to which it relates - payment meaning payment of the whole amount due.

Any amounts not settled when they become due will automatically and without the need for prior official notification give rise to late payment penalties calculated on the amount remaining due, at three times the legal interest rate in force at the time. Moreover and in accordance with the decree n°2012-1115 dated 2nd October 2012, a fixed collection compensation of 40€ will be owed by the purchaser in case of delay in payment of any debt whose term payment would have begun after the 1st January 2013.

Interest and fixed collection compensation of 40€ are incurred from the day following the due date until full payment of the amounts due. In addition, non-payment of a single invoice means that amounts owed to FORESTIER from other invoices that remain outstanding automatically become payable immediately - all the amounts in question immediately incur interest.

Le vendeur se réserve le droit d'apporter à sa seule initiative, toute modification mineure, notamment de forme, de couleur, de dimension ou de matière concernant les pièces des collections qu'il aura présentées, quel que soit le canal de publicité utilisé, qui n'obéira pas l'apparence du produit.

ARTICLE 11

En circonstances de late payment - and without prejudice to the application of the principle described in article 8 of this document - the vendor may at its own discretion:

- Suspend its obligations concerning the order affected by the delay as well as all current orders until all sums owed it by the purchaser are paid in full.

- Cancel the sale automatically - the vendor being able to seek an interim injunction for the return of the goods involved without prejudice to the payment of any damages in this respect. This termination will not only affect the current order but also - should the vendor so wish - all previous or future orders not paid for, whether they have been delivered or are in the course of delivery and whether payment for them is due or not. The purchaser must reimburse all the costs incurred by the contentious recovery of the sums due. Advance payments made by the purchaser will be retained by the vendor.
